MAGNUM'S NIKOS ECONOMOPOULOS

ATHENS WORKSHOP

IN COLLABORATION WITH IFOCUS

Nikos Economopoulos says:

“If you are asking me if photography can change the world, the answer is no. Not much. It can raise awareness and all, but I do not believe in it so much these days. In the past, more so. There was a period in the 60s and 70s, that it was more widely considered that because photography could show what was happening,

It could change the world. Well, it didn't. Even when, or actually, especially when it intends to. Maybe photography was more potent in its early days, at its time of innocence. Maybe the spell is now lost, maybe it isn't. Not if you look at its poetic dimension, and the ways in which poetry - and photography can be a kind of poetry - can make us better human beings.”

Join his Athens Workshop this spring (in Greek only).
